Dear [redacted]

STAT

On the occasion of your retirement after some 30 years with the U.S. Government, including 26 years with the CIA, I want to personally express my appreciation for your loyal and dedicated service, both here in FBIS and in other components of the Agency. You have established a record--and a reputation--of which you can be very proud, and you will be warmly remembered by all those with whom you have come into contact during your long career.

Let me take this opportunity to wish you [redacted] every happiness in your well-earned retirement. I can assure you that you will be missed by all of us here in FBIS.

STAT

Sincerely,

[redacted]

FYI. I thought you would be interested in a CT's view of FBIS. I think we do a very good job of integrating the CTs into our system even during the short interim assignments.
